Let's explore Rwanda together!

A group of five lionesses are the central focus of the image. One is standing on the left, looking towards the right. Three others are lying down in the foreground, and one is standing in the middle ground. In the background, a blue safari vehicle with several people is parked on a dirt path. The setting is a savanna with dry, leafless trees and a clear blue sky. The text "SOUTH AFRICA" is overlaid at the bottom in a bold, orange font with a white outline.
